Reasonable Cause Explanations

Explanation

---

Canine Cancer Alliance is an all-volunteer organization and has in past relied on volunteers for tax-filing. Unfortunately, the volunteer we were relying on to file Form 990 stopped working with our organization right before the Nov 15 extension due date. I stepped in to complete the form, but I had health issues and could not complete the form in December or January. We learned an important lesson from this process and in future, we plan to hire a professional to file Form 990 and to start the process well before the deadline. We wanted to maximize the funds for canine cancer research grants, hence we were trying to minimize spending on contractors.
